

Nechako Valley Local Food Producers Directory

2015

The Nechako Valley Food Network is comprised of a group of volunteers whose mission is to:

- Promote the growth and distribution of local agricultural products in the Nechako Valley.
- Educate and aid individuals to grow and eat their own produce in an environmentally sound way.

BENEFITS OF BUYING LOCALLY PRODUCED FOODS

🌱 Food security.

🌱 Knowing what is in your food, and who grew it!

🌱 Freshness and quality of the products.

🌱 Good for the local economy.

🌱 Makes a community stronger.

🌱 Reduces the environmental impact of long distance shipping.

🌱 Opportunities for stewardship and learning.

Everyone is welcome to become a member of the NVFN. We encourage you to come to a meetings or volunteer with a Local Food Event, the community garden, or other NVFN projects. The NVFN is a member group of the Nechako Healthy Community Alliance, a registered nonprofit society that serves as the administrative body for its member groups. More information at www.nechakohca.ca.

Thank you to Henry Klassen for his generous donation to help print this directory.
